Together they illustrate, surprisingly well, the extremes of pathos and playfulwhich are touched by his genius, and show the ness which are touched by his genius, and show the versatility and beautiful finish of his acting. The comedian has himself made a play on the subject of the Dickeus story, so as not to intrude upon that of Mr. Dickeus story, so as not to intrude upon that of Mr. Dickeus story, so as not to intrude upon that of Mr. Boucleault. PREPARING TO PRODUCE "LARME."

"Mr. Duff says that he must trouble you to step through this way, sir," aid a diminutive office.boy at Daly's Theatre to a Tribune reporter, who accordingly followed the youth through dosky passages and the dreary vastness of the unoccupied theatre to a large the dreary vastness of the distortion. Mr. Duff was sur nded by a bevy of damsels engaged, like the Princess in Dickens's story, in "anipping, cutting, fitting and contriving" on a quantity of gorgeous robes cut after the fashion of the eighteenth century. "These are some of the dresses for 'Mignon'" said he, as he tossed some embroisered square-cut waistcoats over to the reporter, who examined the apparently rich siks and cut velvete as if he knew something about them. "Those are only the chorus's dresses, so you may imagine what the principals' will be," continued Mr. Duff. "But here are what will make the ladies' mouths water," and he turned to a pile of cobwebby Indian gauzes embroidered in colored silks and gold with true Oriental feeling for color and quaintness of designs.
"These are for 'Lakmé'" said the manager, "for,as I suppose you know, the scene of the opera is laid in India. I have determined to dress and mount all my operasjust as well as I know how, and never in my experience as an operatio manager have I ever launched out into such extravagance as I have now. You see I have a peculiar lot of choristers; they have to sing in litalian as well as English, and must be able to read muste perfectly, and I have thus been compelled to engage a much higher class of performers than I ever engaged before. In order to get the consent of many of them to accept subordinate positions, I had to promise them that as muca care should be given to their costumes as to those of the principals. I have a cobrus of thirty-dive, and they are all picked people. You see I am going into this venture to slik or swim, and if I swim this additional intual expenses will count as nothing.

"Yes, of course, I am confident. With Emma Juch, Campobelle, George Sweet, Ryley, Rose Cook, Miss Barton and possibly Perugini in the cast as principals, and with a cnorms and orchestra such as I have engaged, success is nearly a certainty, and when you add that "Lakme" is a new opera, I think I ought to feel as if we should pay expenses at least." operas just as well as I know how, and never in my ex-

MR. McCULLOUGH'S HEALTH IMPROVED.

John McCullough arrived in town from Long Beach recently, but immediately went to Philadelphia, from which place he has just returned. He was found at the St. James Hotel by a TRIBUNE reporter, looking very much better and brighter than be-fore his visit to the seashore.

"Long Beach is a wonderful place," said he, "and I have picked up tremendously during my short stay there. The beach is magnificent and the breezes invigorating enough to put life into a dead man. I feel a strong as ever, and shall set out on Tuesday next to strong as ever, and shall set out on Tuesday next to begin my season without any fear of breaking down. After all the work is not so very bard if sne's heart is lit, as mine is. We exaggerate our labors in anticipation nowadays, I think. The other day I picked up McCready's "Reminiscences" and was amazed when I reflected how ardnous were his labors even when a comparatively old man. He seems actually to have courted rather than evaded hard work, and to that I suppose he owed the major part of his success. We are getting degenerate, nowadays, and that's the truth.

"I open my season at Denver toward the end of the month, and shall play my old repertory, as that seems to satisfy my andiences as well or better than an, novel-ty. If I am as successful next season as I was last, I shall be more than satisfied and shall get all that, or more than, I seserve."

STABBED IN A FIGHT.

An affray that will undoubtedly terminate fatally occurred last evening in front of No. 88 Essex-st. setween William Wagner, of No. 39 Delancey-st., and between William Wakner, of No. 39 Delancey-st., and Edward Dobbins, of No. 143 Delancey-st. It originated in a dispute about the sale of some tickets, but it is said an old fend has existed between the men. Wagner is a member of the Germania Schutzen Verein, a number of the members of which were assembled of the members of which were assembled at the hall in which the disturbance occurred. Dobbins was ejected from the place, and later the fight was renewed on the sidewalk, when Dobbins was stabbed in the abdomen, it is thought, with a pocket-knife. Wagner was arrested, and claims that Dobbins struck him in the mouth. He deules that he used a knife, but says he struck him with a key. Wagner was arrested by Officer Dokel, of the Electides Street Station, and was identified by the wounded man, who is now in the Chambers Street Hospital and whose ante-mortem statement was taken by Coroner Kennedy.

MEETINGS AT CHAUTAUQUA.

A DISCUSSION OF THE WORK OF YOUNG MEN'S CHRIS-TIAN ASSOCIATIONS.

CHAUTAUQUA, N. Y., Aug. 12 .- The Sunday school for children to-day was conducted by the Rev. Victor Cornell, of Chautauqua, and that for adults in the amphitheatre by William A. Duncan, of Syracuse. There was an attendance of about 3,000 persons. At 11 o'clock a sermon was preached in the amphitheatre to 5,000 people by the Rev. E. D. Ledyard, D. D., of the Mount Auburn Presbyterian Church, Cincinnati.

At 2:30 p. m., the Rev. J. O. Foster, of Illinois, lec tured on " The Tests of Sunday-school work." At 3:30 a Young Men's Christian Association platforn meeting was held in the amphitheatre. W. C. Wright, vice-president of the St. Louis association, had charge of the meeting. He said that the association formed a par of the great army of Christ. In every portion of the world Young Men's associations were found. In India and China their influence was felt; they were breaking down the barriers between Christians of different names The Rev. W. A. Robinson, of Clevland, suggested from the point of view of a pastor that all the churches of any town should be represented in the management and work of the local association, which should be delegated alliance of the several local congregations, and every young man who went into a town should have every young man who went into a town should have somebody after him. Mr. J. Y. Leming, of Akron. described the methods of work. The Rev. J. T. Whitley, of the University of Virginia, spoke of William B. Gladstone's personal Christian work, and asked, when a man whose duties are so absorbing and exacting as are his may do this work, who may not follow his example in this direction! Dr. T. T. Everett, of Harrisburg, made the closing address, giving his evidence as to the good work of the Young Men's Christian Association on both continents.

Chancellor Vincent presided over a meeting of the Chantaqua Society of Christian Ethics at 4 o'clock, and held a vesper service at 5 o'clock. Dr. Vincent said he was sometimes aimost frightened at the breadins of his own charity. He had a hope that Sociates, who had never heard of Carist, was in Heaven, but if so he had gained an entrance through grasping a hand in the dark that he found in the light of the other side to be the son of God. The Chautauqua Alumni reunfon will be held on Thursday, and the speciacle of the illuminated fiset will be given in the evening. On Friday there will be a lecture by the Rev. A. G. Haygood, D. D., of Georgia, a member of the Government Educational Commission, and on Saturday will be held the second commencement of the Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle, on which day thousands of persons will be graduated.

IS THE HAND THAT OF CONKLING?

COMMENTS BY A WELL-INFORMED REPUBLICAN UPON DORSEY'S ALLEGED REVELATIONS. IBY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.

Washington, Aug. 12 .- "Roscoe Conkling toes not seem to lack interest in politics of a certain sort, after all," said a shrewd Republican politician the other

Why not! " asked a TRIBUNE correspondent. "Well, it is plain enough to me that his hand is in the so-called revelations of Dorsey. That story about the plot' to nominate Garfield at Chicago and about the fler to give the nomination to Cankling, which, with Roman virtue, he declined, was told by Conkling himself to a friend in Washington months ago. One of these days Conkling will burst forth with 'the greatest effort of his life, and tell the public what he knows about the campaign of 1880 and the Administration of President Garfield, mark my prediction. He will do it and he will exert all his energy to defeat 'the Republican party next year, unless he can rule it.

"By the way, Dorsey's memory, even when he is talking of things he had some possible chance to know about, is extremely treacherous in very many respects," continued the Kepublican. "I could give you a great many instances. There is the so-called Fifth Avenue Hotel conference, for one thing. Dorsey appears to have forgotten that while a piedge to appoint Levi P. Morton Secretary of the Treasury was asked of Garfield in case of his election, he positively refused to give it. He did say frankly that in case of his election the Republican party of the State of New-York should be properly recognized by a Cabinet appointment, and that if the Republican leaders of that state would submit to him the names of five persons—one of which might be the name of Levi P. Morton, he would select a member of his Cabinet from among the five men thus named. But he did not say that he would make that man Secretary of the Treasury. The Navy portfollo was offered to Mr. Morton and he accepted it. I suppose everybedy remembers the midnight means which were used by New-York positicians to cause him subsequently to withdraw his acceptance. If you could get General Swaim to talk, he would confirm what I say, and so, I believe, would Mr. Morton himself."

AN AGREEABLE SURPRISE AT NEWPORT. THE TRIBUNE THE FIRST NEW-YORK SUNDAY PAPER TO REACH THERE ON PUBLICATION DAY.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.]

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 12.-The guests at the hotels, the Casino and the cottages here were agree ably surprised this afternoon by newsboys carrying bundles of THE NEW-YORK SUNDAY TRIBUNE of today. The novelty of the thing made a lively demand for the paper. This is the first time in the history of Newport that an achievement like this has been recorded. It is not clearly known how THE TRIBUNES got here, but it is a fact that they came by a TRIBUNE special express; that they arrived all right, this afternoon, and were on sale all over the city, and that THE TRIBUNE is the first New-York Sunday paper to run an express from the metropolis to reach Newport on the day of publication. THE TRIBUNE has been arriving on week days this season regularly in advance of all other New-York papers, and has been the gainer by it, and now its enterprise is extended to the one remaining day of the week. THE TRIBUNE express brought a bag of letter mail from New-York, simply as an accommodation to the public. It is doubtful if that oranch of the enterprise will do more than merely exhibit good will of The Tribune and its desire to accommodate the public. But the delivery of the Sunday paper, with its large clear print and wonderful budget of summer-resort and other news and miscellany, is a real benefit, and it is generally hoped the enterprise may be as successful as it deserves. The Tribune was the isopper-labbe paper throughout Newport was the supper-table paper throughout Newpor

AT NARRAGANSETT PIER. THE TRIBUNE EXPRESS CARRIES A LETTER MAIL TO THE GUESTS.

NARRAGANSETT PIER, R.I., Aug. 12.—THE SUNDA THIBUNE arrived here to-day on a special express and was gladly welcomed. The wind was blowing a gale and the sky was overcast, and although the cold weather did not prevent the daily promenade of guests to the rocks, yet the visitors were glad to spend most of the day in the house, and THE SUNDAY TRIBUNE was more enjoyed on account of the gloom without. Last Sunday the public here had a shock of surprise by the unexpected arrival of THE SUN-DAY TRIBUNE on the day of publication, the firs case on record of a New-York paper so received. To-day there was a new surprise. THE TRIBUNE express brought a bag of letter mail from the Newexpress brought a bag of letter mail from the New-York Post Office, which was opened at 5 for its delivery to the public. Everyone who received letters, and the number was great, was thankful to The Telbune for its enterprise. Bundles of the paper were distributed to all the hotels by James Greer, jr., an energetic young newsdealer who employed a wagon to aid his boys in making deliveries.

AT WATCH HILL IN GOOD SEASON.

WATCH HILL, Aug. 12.—The yacut bringing THE SUNDAY TRIBUNE reached here at 12:25 p. m. to-day, after a twenty-five minutes' sail from Stonington The enterprise shown by THE TRIBUNE is fully ap preciated here, and there was a heavy demand for the paper to-day. The Watch Hill House is filled with guests, there being not less than three hundred and fifty names on the register. The Larkins is also crowded.

A GREAT HIT IN AND NEAR NEW-LONDON. INY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.

NEW-LONDON, Conn., Aug. 12.-THE TEIBUNE has made a great hit by the delivery of its Sunday paper on Sunday to the summer hotels in this neighborhood. The paper arrived to-day at 10:30 a. m. Much interest has been aroused by the novel action of THE TRIBUNE, and bo h last Sunday and to-day the arrival of the bundles of papers was greeted by a large crowd of people. The enterprise has met a popular want,

ENTERPRISE REWARDED AT SARATOGA. LARGELY INCREASED DEMANDS FOR THE TELBUNK-QUICK TIME OVER THE HUDSON RIVER ROAD.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE! SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 12,-THE TRIBUNE beat all the other New-York papers into Saratoga to-day as usual. People have marvelled a great deal thi summer at the energy of THE TRIBUNE in sending a special train all the way from New-York to carry nothing except its own papers and the men in charge of them. The question is frequently asked, " Does it pay ?" An answer was seen to-day in the large size of the load of papers sent for sale in response to the orders of the newsmen. The sale has quadrupled since the special train began. The dealers all say here that the sales of THE TERRUNE have been greatly increased, not only on Sunday, but on every other day of the week. A substantial and fashionple congregate at the Springs in the summer time, and they are quick to recognize enterprise and to reward that which meets their demands for an early copy of a thoroughly good metropolitan newspaper. THE PRIBUNE train made a run to-day such as can only be made over a road on which everything is kept in perfect order, and over management presides the soundest intelligence. Something more is required than merely gigantic locomotives like No. 611, and the desired quality is found in the experience and thorough acquaint ance with railroad management of Superintendent J. M. Toucey, and William Buchanan, the superintendent of motive power. Mr. Toucey not only knows railroading from a spike up, but also understands how to win the enthusiasm of the men of the road by his good sense, sunny temper and energy. Mr. Buchanau is a me chanic as well as manager, and has a complete practical knowledge of motive power. No. 613, a new engine, sister to No. 611, just built under his supervision, is a specimen of what can be done by him. It has just shown itself capable of making the fast time of a mile in five seconds on the western division of the road. The good steam coal used by the Central is in part the cause of the rapid time by THE TRIBUNE train and No. 613 made on their trips. It may not be known that these big engines evaporate a barrel of water every mile they run; and the scent freight and passenger traffic of the Central cond not be transacted without the right kind of fires in the locomotives. Many points are noted by the experienced eye in travel-right kind of fires in the locomotives. Anny points are noted by the experienced eye in traveling over this road, showing intelligent and careful management; and it is no wonder, all things considered, that fire Tribuxe train does so well.

On the journey to Schenectady this morning The Tribuxe train, drawn by engine No. 611, was under the management of Conductor Wele and Engineer Raymond. The run from Poughkeepsie to Catskiii Station was made at the rate of a mile a minute, and the twenty-eight miles between Hudson and Albany were covered in 27 minutes. The train reached Schenectady at 6:40 a.m., and four minutes later the bundles of Tribuxes were whirling away toward Saratoga. The weather was delightful and the pony express made good time, reaching Saratoga at 8:23 a.m., more than an hour before any other New-York paper.

A HARD ROAD UP THE CATSKILLS. BRISK DEMAND FOR TRIBUNES AT THE MOUNTAIN HOUSES.

CATSKILL, N. Y., Aug. 12.-THE TRIBUNE pony express started up the mountains this morning on its fifth trip at 5:35 a. m. The lack of rain for some time had left the roads covered with a thick layer of dust. This made the travelling hard for the horses, but they kept well to their work, and just as the guests at the Kaaterskill House had finished their breakfast, THE SUNDAY TRIBUNE was ready for them. The demand for the paper was brisk, copies being taken as fast as they could be At the Laurel and Mountain Houses the sales of

AT THE DELAWARE WATER-GAP. A WARM WELCOME FROM BUSINESS MEN.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] DELAWARE WATER-GAP, Penn., Aug. 12 .- THE TRIBUNE express, driven by Harry M. Barrett, arrived here in good season, just after breakfast today, and was rather more heartily welcome than usual. Business men at the hotels value highly a good paper directly from New-York with the latest news about Saturday's flurry in Wall Street and the business outlook generally. A daily paper is a necessity to these earnest city men, and none bought THE TRIBUNE to-day more eagerly than they; and there were many satisfied comments from them on the vigorous enterprise that brought it here. This TRIBUNE does not lose its vigor with age. The wagon that brought the papers a distance of thirty miles went on from here to Stroudsburg.

THE VINEYARD HAVEN FIRE.

COTTAGES AND STORES DESTROYED. ATTEMPTS AT THIEVERY-THE INDIVIDUAL LOSSES AN APPEAL FOR AID.

VINEYARD HAVEN, Mass., Aug. 12.-It was not until 2:30 a, m. to-day that the fire which broke out late last night and destroyed the business portion of this and many of its fine cottages was checked. The Cottage City Fire Department and police were present, and rendered valuable assistance in subduing the flames. District Officers Innes and Sevear and Chief Dexter, of Cottage City, organized a force to protect the goods of burned stores, of which the streets and vacant lots were full. Numerous thieves from vessels in the harbor were on shore, and boldly at tempted to carry away goods. Several arrests were made of persons caught making off with clothing, etc. The territory burned over embraced about fifty cres of the neart of the village. The fire strikes lmost a death blow at this ancient village. It leaves hundreds of people homeless, many of whom are thrown upon the charity of their neighbors. The town is at present full of summer boarders from Washington and elsewhere, and probably 200 of them are turned out of doors by the fire.

A public meeting was held at Cottage City to day, at which a relief committee of twenty-one, consisting of prominent citizens and visitors was appointed. This afternoon the committee issued the following appeal:

"An appalling calamity has befallen the village of Vineyard Haven, A conflagration last night swept away the entire business portion of the place, excepting one store, and destroyed over thirty dwellings, thus throwing out of occupation and home hundreds of persons who have lost every thing. Many of these homeless ones are widows and orphans, and all are in need of immediate as sistance. Contributions of food, clothing or money addressed to Captain James L. Smith, treasurer Vineyard Haven, Mass., will be thankfully received ov the relief committee,"

This appeal is signed by William H. Arnoux, chairman of the relief committee; and is approved by Truman Allen and Oliver H. Tilton, the Selectmen of the town of Ti-bury, in which this village is situated

The village is a sad sight, and is being visited by thousands from all parts of the island and from the mainland. The loss is estimated at $190,000, on which there is an insurance of $64,200 placed through a local agency. All the stores in the place but one are burned. The wife of James Davis, an aged resident, died from excitement consequent upon the fire. The following are the heaviest losers:

F. H. Davis, paints and oils, on building and stock, $5,000; insurance, $2,000

R. W. Crocker, harvess manufacturer, $20,000 on machinery and stock and $3,000 on building and

THE KIMBALL HOUSE BURNED.

A NOTED ATLANTA HOUSE DESTROYED-ESCAPE OF THE GUESTS.

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 12.-The Kimball House wa discovered to be on fire at 5 o'clock this morning. The flames getting beyond control, Mr. Scoville, the proprieter, ordered the guests to be awakened. The guards went through the ballways, breaking open doors where necessary to fusure the safety of the guests. The fire having originated in the real of the building, there was opportunity to escape and within twenty minutes the hotel was emptied. In an hour the structure was burned to the ground. The hotel was built by H. I. Kimball, and was owned by Robert Toombs, John Rice, Joseph P. Thompson, and others. It cost $600,000. furniture cost $125,000. The insurance is only $80,000, scattered among many companies the names of which cannot be ascertained to-night. The Gate City National Bank, Harralson & Broth The Gate City National Balik. Harrison & Hoteles, to bacconists, John B. Daniel, drugs, and others are among the losers. The total loss is $1,000,000. The insurance is not over $200,000. The fire is thought by Mr. Cuiberson, the agent of the hotel company, to have been of in-endiary origin. In the vauits of the Gate City Bank was $500,000, the safety of which is yet a matter of doubt

A SCHOOL-BOY COMMITS SUICIDE.

SHOOTING HIMSELF DIRECTLY AFTER DINNER-NO CAUSE KNOWN FOR THE ACT. An elderly man, accompanied by a middle aged woman, made anxious inquiries at the Police Central Office at 8 o'clock last evening for the address of a coroner or a physician. In answer to the inquiries of a group of reporters who were standing near, the man stated that an accident had happened at his house, but he refused to say where he lived or what was his name. Securing the information he wanted he left the building in company with his companion. Later in the evening it was learned that the man was Patrick Kirby, of No. 495 Fifth-ave., whose son, Patrick Kirby, had committed suicide at 7 o'clock in his room at his father's house. Young Mr. Kirby was eighteen years old only, and was still pursuing his studies

Last night, when seen by a TRIBUNE reporter, Mr. Kirby was reluctant to speak about the death of his son. He said that for some weeks he had been moody and melancholy, but was in good Last evening he came to his dinner at 5 o'clock, ate heartily, and seemed more cheerful than usual. He got up from the dinner table and went to his room on the second floor. Shortly afterward the mufiled report of a pistol drew every member of the family to his room. There they found the youth lying on the floor holding in his right hand a small Colt's revolver, one of the five chambers of which had been discharged. At the first glance it looked as if the shooting had been accidental, but a close inspection showed that the pistol had been held close to his left breast, for the clothing had been scorched by the powder. The horrified parents on recovering from their shock set out to find a coroner. Mr. Kirby said he knew of no possible motive for the suicide, but he supposed, in the absence of any letter, that his son was suffering from a temporary loss of his reason.

An undertaker was summoned at 10 o'clock, and the body of the schoolboy was laid out in the room in which he had killed himself. Beyond the details given above Mr. Kirby refused to speak of the tragedy. Deputy Coroner Donlin visited the house in the evening, and after viewing the body took possession of the pistol, which is a 30-calibre,

A SWIMMER SUDDENLY SINKS.

HENRY PROSSER DROWNED AT ROCKAWAY-FUTILE EFFORTS TO RESUSCITATE HIM.

The temperature of the water at Rocksway Beach vesterday afternoon seemed to be just right for bathing, and, as a result, hundreds of people took a dip. While the shore was crowded with bathers of all sorts and sizes, a young man of slight build, and about twenty-five years of age, hired a bathing suit at Wainwright & Remsen's pavilion and went into the surf. He was apparently a good swimmer, as he struck out manfully and was soon beyond the ropes

The spectators along the shore were admiring his skill in breasting the waves, when suddenly he was seen to throw up his hands, then he disappeared beneath the water. A minute or two later he came to the surface again but as he had either lost his presence of mind or had been seized by cramps, he made no effort to save himself and sank again almost immediately. Captain McRowe, the expert swimmer, and hisdiog, went to the rescue of the drowning man, and succeeded in seizing him as he was going down for the third time. The body was dragged ashere and several persons, including a physician, were soon at work trying to resuscitate the man. Every effort was made to awaken the spark of life but, after working over the body for nearlylan hour, the task was given up as hopeless.

On the cuvelope in which the drowned man had placed his watch and chain he had written the name, Henry Prosser. It is supposed that he was in the employ of P. H. Leonard, a nealer in glassware, at No. 18 Marray-st., New-York City, as a number of cards of the above firm were found in his pockets. As Mr. Leonard's family have gone into seen to throw up his hands, then he disappeared pockets. As Mr. Leonard's family have gone into the country for the summer it was not possible to learn anything concerning Presser at the residence in West Forty-sixth-st., last night.

THE PRESIDENT'S CAMP LIFE.

FISHING IN THE WILDS OF WYOMING PERRITORY. CAMP VEST ON SPRING CREEK, Wy. T, Aug. 10.—The day so far since leaving Camp Rollins, at Aug. 10.—The day so far since leaving Camp Rollins, at Bull Lake Fork, this morning at 7 o'clock has been very uneventful. The President and all the members of the party are in excellent health and spirits. The country travelled over to-day was mostly covered with sage-brush, varied by alternate ascending and descending of steep hills covered with loose stones, which made precarious footing for the animals. One cannot help wondering why se much material was wasted in the making of so many apparently useless ridges where there are plenty of guiches which could so well be filled.

and the Owl Creek Mountains, with their anow-clad peaks, are in sight, and afford a restfulness to the eyes of the travellers who are pursuing their way actous the dried and heated places below. The camp on Spring Creek, however, is a very delightful one, being situated on

All along the route, however, the glorious Wind River

Creek, however, is a very delightful one, being situated on pleasant ground with plenty of the requirements of good camping places—good water and grass. To the eastward is Crow Heart Butte, the noted landmark of the Wind River Valley, of which the photographer has obtained several pictures.

This dispatch has to leave by a courier at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, so that no report can be made to-day of the results obtained by the fishermon. The camp is named "Camp Vest." in honor of Senator G. G. Vest, who is one of the most enthusiastic and successful anglers of the party. After the dispatch of yesterday was forwarded from Bull Lake Fork both the President and Senator Vest brought into the camp several crees full of trout as the result of their afternoon sport. There are no special or professional correspondents with the party.

A REUNION OF THE TUTTLE FAMILY.

BRIDGEPORT, Cond., Aug. 9 .- S. G. Davidson, of Bethauy, Conn., has sent letters to all descend-ants of William Tuttle, known by him, who settled in New-Haven in 1635, and has advertised extensively in the Connecticut papers for the benefit of those whom he does not know, inviting all to assemble at a family re-union at High Rock Grove, on Wednesday next. The in-vitation is not limited, as "all parties interested, alvitation is not limited, as "all parties interested, al-though bearing other names, are invited to attend, as a good time is expected." The Tuttles are almost as numerous as the Smiths in Connecticut, hence if they all atnames," the 260 acres of this popular resort of Connect. icut will be crowded.

High Rock Grove is about twenty miles from Bridge port, on the Naugatuck Railroad, and its facilities, its romantic surroundings and its grand features are well comantic surroundings and its grand features are well calculated to make the Tuttle family enjoy their first rounon. With the Naugatuck River flowing on one side of the grounds, and the wild mountain scenery bounding the other side, it is remarkable that it should not have been transformed into a popular summer resort before 1876, when, in fact, improvements were begun. The first thing that greets the visitor's eye is a large conservatory of flowers in the centre of which are the letters "H. R. G.," with the figures "76-33" in flowers, indicating the birth and age of the place. Besides the boating on the river, the dancing pavilion, the dining pavilion, the nurseries, the croquet grounds, the swings, the skating rink and bowling alley, there are the "lovers' ramble," the gorge, the glens and the high rock from which the indian maiden, Weeke-peemee, sprang and killed herself because of ill forebodings about her white lover, and whose suicide was followed by his at the same place. There are also other places of legendary fame for the Tuttle family to be interested in, and already more than 1,500 persons have promised to attend the reunion.

SWISS FESTIVAL IN PHILADELPHIA. PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 12.-Over 5,000 persons were present at the Swiss National Festival, which was opened to-day at Schuetzen Park and will continue to-morrow. The exercises consisted of singing, addresses, procession, games for children, etc. The principal feature was the reception of the visiting singing and beneficial societies, among the number, the Helvetlenne French Swiss singing society of New York. A procession around the grounds represented a Swiss scene, the principal characters appearing in national costumes. Addresses were made by Vice-President Jules L. Progler, the Swiss Consul, Rudolph Koradi, and others.

STEAMSHIP ARRIVAL.—The French steamship Burgundia, from Mediterranean ports and ported at an early hour this morning.
